

CHAPTER 46 – SOLID WASTE

ARTICLE I. - IN GENERAL

Secs. 46-1—46-18. - Reserved.

ARTICLE II. - COLLECTION CONTRACTS

Sec. 46-19. - Definitions.

The following words, terms and phrases, when used in this article, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

Approved container, approved bag, container or bag means those containers used in the collection of solid waste, which have been approved by the company for use by both residential and commercial customers.

Area means the area within the boundaries of the incorporated areas of the city, as they exist as of the effective date in addition to future boundary changes based upon annexations.

Commercial unit means any structure, whether freestanding or designed to serve multiple tenants, the primary purpose of which is for conducting business. For the purpose of this article, this designation shall include those structures designated for multifamily residential with greater than four units.

Company means any organization, firm, person, entity, corporation or other business that contracts with customers to provide for the collection and disposal of solid waste material as defined in this article, and including but not limited to construction/demolition debris, dead animals, garbage, waste, storm debris, yard trimmings, and recyclable material.

Construction/demolition debris shall have the meaning set forth by the Georgia Department of Natural Resources, Environmental Protection Division (Georgia EPD, chapter 391-3-4.01(14)).

Construction site means any parcel of land or real property having land disturbance, clearing and grading, demolition, improvements and betterments, renovation, remodeling and/or new construction work performed thereon or about the real property or premises whether or not a land disturbance and/or building permit is required.

Customer means any firm, person, entity, corporation or organization that contracts with a company for the collection and disposal of solid waste material as defined in this article, and including but not limited to construction/demolition debris, dead animals, garbage, waste, storm debris, yard trimmings, and recyclable material.

Dead animals means animals or portions thereof equal to or greater than ten pounds in weight that have died from any cause, except those slaughtered or killed for human use.

Effective date means any contract executed between the city and any company on or after January 1, 2006.

Environmental laws means all applicable laws, directives, rules, ordinances, codes, guidelines, regulations, governmental, administrative or judicial orders or decrees or other legal requirements of any kind, including, without limitation, common law, whether currently in existence or hereafter promulgated, enacted, adopted or amended, relating to safety, preservation or protection of human health and the environment (including ambient air, surface water, groundwater, land, or subsurface strata) and/or relating to the handling, treatment, transportation or disposal of waste, substances or materials, including, without limitation, any matters related to releases and threatened releases of materials and substances.

Garbage shall have the meaning set forth at Georgia Department of Natural Resources, Environmental Protection Division (Georgia EPD, chapter 391-3-4-.01(21)).

Gross receipts means the total amount collected by the company from any and all customers for services rendered under authority of this article as a result of charges for service. Gross receipts shall not include the infrastructure maintenance fee identified in this article.

Hazardous materials means any pollutant, contaminant, hazardous or toxic substance, constituent or material, including, without limitation, petroleum products and their derivatives, or other substances, regulated under or pursuant to any environmental laws. The term "hazardous materials" also includes any pollutant, contaminant, hazardous or toxic substance, constituent or material, including, without limitation, petroleum products and their derivatives, or other substance that is, after the date first written above, deemed hazardous by any judicial or governmental entity, body or agency having jurisdiction to make that determination.

Hazardous waste means any waste regulated under or pursuant to any environmental laws, including, but not limited to, any solid waste which has been defined as a hazardous waste in regulations promulgated by the board of natural resources, chapter 291-3-11. The term "hazardous waste" also includes hazardous materials and any waste that is, after the effective date of this agreement, deemed hazardous by any judicial or governmental entity, board, body or agency having jurisdiction to make that determination. The term "hazardous waste" will be construed to have the broader, more encompassing definition where a conflict exists in the definitions employed by two or more governmental entities having concurrent or overlapping jurisdiction over hazardous waste.

Residential unit means any structure, including single-family and multifamily dwellings of four units or less, the primary purpose for which is for living.

Solid waste means the collection of residential and commercial non-recyclable waste, residential and commercial recyclable waste, and residential yard trimmings/waste.

Term means a period of one year from the effective date.

Waste means all perishable and nonperishable solid, semisolid, and liquid wastes, including residential or commercial garbage, trash, refuse, paper, rubbish, ashes, manure, vegetable or animal solid and semisolid wastes, and other discarded solid and semisolid wastes.

Sec. 46-20. - Grant of nonexclusive contract.

- (a) The city shall hereby grant to companies a nonexclusive contract, pursuant to the terms set forth herein, to use the public streets, alleys, roads and thoroughfares within the city for the purpose of operating and engaging in the business of collecting and disposing of waste; including, but not limited to, contracting with customers and providing service pursuant to contract therefor, placing and servicing containers, operating trucks, vehicles and trailers, and such other operations and activity as are customary and/or incidental to such business and service.
- (b) It is illegal for any company to operate outside the terms of this agreement. Should companies engage in operations that violate this contract, or operate without first notifying the city of acceptance of this contract's terms, said company is guilty of an offense.

Sec. 46-21. - Term.

The term of any agreement is for a period of one year beginning on the effective date of the contract execution and terminating on the first anniversary of said date. The company shall begin performance under this contract immediately after the effective date of the contract execution.

Sec. 46-22. - Scope and nature of operation.

- (a) Residential and commercial refuse and waste. The company may collect and deliver for disposal all residential and commercial refuse and waste accumulated within the corporate limits of the city by the company's customers and the words "refuse," "garbage," "trash" and "waste," when used in this article, are used for convenience and, unless the context shows otherwise, refer residential and commercial refuse and waste. The company will furnish the personnel and equipment to collect refuse, provide the services described herein, and as contracted for with its customers, in an efficient and businesslike manner.
- (b) Containers, bins and other services. Service-provided company shall provide container, bin and other collection service for the collection of residential and commercial refuse and waste according to the individual customer agreements and applicable city regulations and shall make provision for the special collection of such refuse and waste upon request. The company shall cause or require its equipment, containers and bins to be kept and maintained in a manner to not cause or create a threat to the public health and shall keep the same in a good state of repair.

- (c) Collection operation.
- (1) Collection times. Save and except as provided in this section, collection shall not start before 7:00 a.m. nor continue after 7:00 p.m. at any location. Operations may only be conducted Monday through Saturday.
 - (2) Variances. Company may request variances to this collection period for properties in which normal collection procedures would cause a clear and present safety hazard. All requests for variances must be filed in writing with the city community development department on forms which can be obtained at the city community development department, and include documentation of the hazard created by the collection operation period. A determination regarding the application shall be made by the city within 30 days from the date of the application and communicated to the applicant. The city may charge a fee for each variance location requested as set forth in the fee schedule.
 - (3) Appeals. Any person aggrieved by a decision of the city pursuant to subsection 46-22(c)(2), may submit an appeal to the community development department within 30 days of the date of the communication of the city's decision on forms which can be obtained at the city community development department. The appeal shall be submitted in writing and be heard by the city board of appeals in accordance with the rules and regulations as set forth by this Code, and said board within 90 days of the filing of the appeal. Any person aggrieved by an action of the city board of appeals may appeal within 30 days to the superior court of the county by writ of certiorari or as otherwise required by law.
 - (4) Complaints. Should a collection operation variance be granted and the city receives complaints about the collection operation, the city shall verify and substantiate the factual basis for the complaint. Should the complaints be substantiated, the collection operation variance will be revoked, and the company is required to operate within the collection times set forth in subsection 46-22(c)(1).
- (d) Holidays. The company shall observe such holidays as it, in its sole discretion, determines appropriate.
- (e) Customer service telephone information. All companies must maintain a customer service telephone number while conducting business within the city. The telephone number must be publicly listed in a phone book and available through directory assistance. Each company providing trash receptacles, whether commercial or residential, must mark each receptacle with the company's name and telephone number in letters not less than one and one-half inches in height. Each company must provide a mechanism to accept, investigate, and respond to customer complaints. Companies are strongly encouraged to use multimedia devices including interactive websites, e-mail, fax, and automated telephone systems. Service calls received by the city as a result of non-company performance will result in the consideration of revocation of a nonexclusive contract or the city's choice to not renew an existing agreement.
- (f) Minimum requirements for invoices. Any invoice, bill, statement, or other device intended to request remittance by the customer to the company of funds for payment of service shall include, at a minimum, the company's telephone number and payment methods available to customers.
- (g) Responsibility for customer education. It is the company's obligation and responsibility to educate all customers on industry trends and best practices relating to solid waste collection, removal, and disposal. Such education programs must consist of the following elements: recycling; holiday schedules; new customer information; and any service-related items. All companies have the obligation to inform customers of any non-collected trash or items placed for collection by the customer but not covered under the agreement between the customer and the company. Further, it is the company's obligation and responsibility to educate customers on days of collection for each specific service provided.

Sec. 46-23. - Vehicles to be covered and identified.

All vehicles used by the company for the collection and transportation of refuse is covered at all times while loaded and in transit to prevent the blowing or scattering of refuse onto the public streets or properties adjacent thereto, and such vehicles is clearly marked with the company's name and telephone number in letters not less than 1½ inches in height,

- (a) The company must provide a comprehensive and proactive driver safety education program which encourages safety on city streets. Such program must be demonstrated and conveyed to the city. The company must comply with all other regulatory agencies, local, state, or otherwise, with respect to commercial vehicle operation within the city. Service calls received by the city as a result of non-company performance will result in the consideration of revoking a nonexclusive contract or the city's choice to not renew an existing agreement.

- (1) The company must manage collection services delivered within the city to minimize the number of vehicles on city roads. Coordination between haulers and service providers is strongly encouraged to manage service vehicles on residential streets and neighborhoods. Companies may provide a discounted rate for neighborhood or area collection programs in order to promote the reduction of collection vehicles on city streets.
- (2) Should the company utilize "scout" trucks to facilitate collection in residential areas where it is not feasible to use standard collection vehicles, such vehicles must be covered at all times while loaded and in transit should they exceed 30 miles per hour or be driven more than 200 yards on a public street.

Sec. 46-24. - Regulation of containers.

The company may rent, lease, provide or define specifications for containers to any customer within the corporate limits of the city for refuse storage and collection purposes subject to the following requirements:

- (a) All containers are constructed and maintained according to industry practice.
- (b) All containers are equipped with stable covers to prevent blowing or scattering of refuse while being transported for disposal of their contents.
- (c) All containers, save and except those being used for the purpose of collecting and storing rubble, building and scrap construction materials, are equipped with covers suitable to prevent blowing or scattering refuse and access to the container by animals while the container is at the site designated by customer.
- (d) All containers are periodically cleaned, maintained, serviced and kept in a reasonably good state of repair to prevent the unreasonable accumulation of refuse residues, to avoid excessive odor and harborage for rodents and flies resulting from excessive residues remaining after collection of containers.
- (e) All containers are clearly marked with the company's name and telephone number in letters not less than 1½ inches in height.
- (f) All containers shall not be on public rights-of-way and are located so as to not interfere, block, obstruct or impede the normal use of any sidewalk, street, alley driveway or fire lane, or to block, obstruct or impede sight distance at street, road or alley intersections.
- (g) All containers, bins, or other collection instruments must be kept free from graffiti, rust, broken and nonoperational parts and pieces, and litter in and around the area.
- (h) It is the responsibility of each company to educate their customers on the regulations of containers and maintain industry standards, policies, and procedures, which promote an aesthetically pleasing environment in and around all refuse and waste containers and receptacles.

Sec. 46-25. - Disposal of refuse.

- (a) The company will deliver all refuse and waste collected from its customers within the city, except for materials which the company may select for recovery and recycling, to a disposal facility that is permitted by the EPD to accept such refuse and waste. Rules and regulations governing hours of operation and disposal practices at the disposal facility will be observed and followed by the company while engaged in the disposal of refuse pursuant to this article. Any items collected as part of a recycling program are delivered to a facility where recovery and reuse occurs.
- (b) Should any company choose to offload or dispose of materials collected by one vehicle into another for transport to the final disposal facility, the company should make every available effort to perform such refuse transfer on property owned by the company or privately owned property where the company has an agreement with the property owner to perform such activity. In the event any transfer occurs on public land, including streets, alleys, rights-of-way, roads, thoroughfares, avenues, parkways, expressways, or other areas designed and designated for public travel, the company shall make every effort available to clean the area after completion of the transfer to ensure the area is maintained at the same or better level than if the area was not be used for this activity.

Sec. 46-26. - Reserved

Sec. 46-27. - Compliance with law

The company shall conduct under this article in compliance with the material provisions of all applicable local, state and federal laws, rules and regulations, and with the general specifications contained in this article.

Sec. 46-28. - Insurance provided by company.

- (a) Minimum coverage requirements. The company shall maintain throughout the term of its contract property damage coverage, general liability insurance, and automobile liability insurance for any automobile owned or operated by the company, with an insurance company authorized and licensed to do business in the state and acceptable to the city, insuring against claims for liability and damages for the benefit of the city. The insurance shall include the city as an additional insured. Property damage coverage insurance under this section is a minimum of $500,000.00. Automobile liability insurance under this section shall, at a minimum, have limits of $250,000.00 for bodily injury for each person, and $500,000.00 for each occurrence, and property damage of $250,000.00 for each occurrence and general liability insurance under this section is a minimum of $500,000.00 for the protection of the public in connection with:
- (b) Property damage liability. Property damage liability to persons or damages to property, in any way arising out of or through the acts or omissions of the company, its servants, agents or employees or to which the company's negligence shall in any way contribute;
- (c) Miscellaneous liability. Arising out of any claim or invasion of the right of privacy, for defamation of any person, or the violation or infringement of any copyright, trademark, trade name, service mark or patent, or of any other right of any person;
- (d) Contractors' liability. Arising out of the company's operations and relationships with any independent contractor or subcontractor.
- (e) Employer's liability of insurance. If the company is required by state statutes, the company shall maintain throughout the term of the contract resulting from this article the requisite statutory workers' compensation insurance, and a minimum of $100,000.00 employer's liability insurance. The company is required to show compliance to this section by submitting documentation of such coverage from an approved carrier licensed in the state, or documentation explaining the exemption from employer's liability insurance should they not meet the state requirements to carry such coverage.
- (f) Certificate of insurance. The insurance policy, or policies, obtained by the company in compliance with this section is approved by the city manager or his designee at their reasonable discretion, and the certificate of insurance for the insurance policy is filed and maintained with the city during the term of the contract resulting from this article with a copy of the endorsement required under subsection (d) of this section to be attached or made a part of such certificate.
- (g) Endorsements. All insurance policies maintained pursuant to this article shall contain the following conditions by endorsement:
 - (1) Additional insured. The city is an additional insured and the terms "owner" and "city" shall include all authorities, boards, bureaus, commissions, divisions, departments and offices of the city and the individual members, officers, employees and agents thereof in their official capacities and/or while acting on behalf of the city.
 - (2) Other insurance clause. The policy clause "other insurance" shall not apply to the city when the city is an insured on the policy.
 - (3) No recourse. Companies issuing the insurance policies shall not recourse against the city for payment of any premium or assessment.
- (h) Increase requirements. The city may choose to amend this article to make reasonable adjustments to the insurance coverage and their limits when deemed necessary and prudent based upon changes in statutory law, court decisions, or the claims history of the industry.

Sec. 46-29. - Indemnification and hold harmless

The company agrees to indemnify, defend and save harmless the city, its agents, officers and employees, against and from any and all claims by or on behalf of any person, firm, corporation or other entity arising from any negligent act or omission or willful misconduct of the company, or any of its agents, contractors, servants, employees or contractors, and from and against all costs, counsel fees, expenses and liabilities incurred in or about any such claim or proceeding brought thereon. Promptly after receipt from any third party by the city of a written notice of any demand, claim or circumstance that, immediately or with the lapse of time, would give rise to a claim or the commencement (or threatened commencement) of any action, proceeding or investigation (an "asserted claim") that may result in losses for which indemnification may be sought hereunder, the city shall give written notice thereof (the "claims notice") to the company provided, however, that a failure to give such notice shall not prejudice the city's right to indemnification hereunder except to the extent that the company is actually and materially prejudiced thereby. The claims notice shall describe the asserted claim in reasonable detail, and shall indicate the amount (estimated, if necessary) of the losses that have been or may be suffered by the city when such information is available. The company may elect to compromise or defend, at its own expense and by its own counsel, any asserted claim. If the company elects to compromise or defend such asserted claim, it shall, within 20 business days following its receipt of the claims notice (or sooner, if the nature of the asserted claim so required), notify the city of its intent to do so, and the city shall cooperate, at the expense of the company, in the compromise of, or defense against, such asserted claim. If the company elects not to compromise or defend the asserted claim, fails to notify the city of its election as herein provided or contests its obligation to provide indemnification under this agreement, the city may pay, compromise or defend such asserted claim with all reasonable costs and expenses borne by the company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither the company nor the city shall settle or compromise any claim without the consent of the other party; provided, however, that such consent to settlement or compromise shall not be unreasonably withheld. In any event, the city and the company may participate, at their own expense, in the defense of such asserted claim. If the company chooses to defend any asserted claim, the city shall make available to the company any books, records or other documents within its control that are necessary or appropriate for such defense.

Sec. 46-30. - Forfeiture and terminating of contract.

- (a) Material breach. In addition to all other rights and powers retained by the city under this article or otherwise, the city reserves the right to declare any resulting contract from this article forfeited and to terminate the contract and all rights and privileges of the company hereunder in the event of a material breach of the terms and conditions hereof. A material breach by the company shall include, but not be limited to, the following:
- (1) Fees. Failure to pay the fees set out in section 46-26;
 - (2) Telephone listings. Failure to keep and maintain a telephone listing and office or answering service that is available by phone without long distance charge during regular business hours for service to the public, and which telephone or office shall, at minimum, provide and maintain the following services:
 - a. Coordinate and provide information concerning deposits, payments and accounts to customers and prospective customers;
 - b. Respond to customer and prospective customer questions and issues about billings, accounts, deposits and services;
 - c. Coordination with the city with respect to private sector and public works projects and issues related to or affecting the company's operation; and
 - d. Immediate response, upon request, to police, fire and other emergency situations in which the public health and safety requires action with respect to or assistance regarding company's property.
 - (3) Provision of services. Failure to materially provide the services provided for in this article within six months of execution of this contract;
 - (4) Misrepresentation. Material misrepresentation of fact in the application for or negotiation of any contract resulting from this article; or
 - (5) Conviction. Conviction of any director, officer, employee, or agent of the company of the offense of bribery or fraud connected with or resulting from the award of a contract from this article.
- (b) Operation information. Material misrepresentation of fact knowingly made to the city with respect to or regarding the company's operations, management, revenues, services or reports required pursuant to this article.

- (c) Economic hardship. The company shall not be excused by mere economic hardship or by misfeasance or malfeasance of its directors, officers or employees.
- (d) Forfeiture and proceedings. Any unwarranted and intentional neglect, failure or refusal of the company to comply with any material provision of this article or resulting contract within 30 days after written notice from city setting forth the specific provision and noncompliance, said notice to be mailed to company at its principal place of business by certified mail, return receipt requested, is deemed a breach of this article, and the city council, upon notice to the company and hearing, may, for good cause, declare a contract forfeited and exclude company from further use of the streets of the city under this article, and the company shall thereupon surrender all rights in and under this article and contract.
 - (1) Proceedings. In order for the city to declare a forfeiture pursuant to section 46-26(1), this subsection (d) and subsection (d)(3) of this section, the city shall make a written demand that the company comply with any such provision, rule, order, or determination under or pursuant to this article. If such violation by the company continues for a period of 30 days following such written demand without written proof that the corrective action has been taken or is being actively and expeditiously pursued, the council may take under consideration the issue of termination of the resulting contract from this article. The city shall cause to be served upon the company, at least 20 days prior to the date of such a council meeting, a written notice of intent to request such termination and the time and place of the meeting. Notice is given of the meeting and issue which the council is to consider.
 - (2) Hearing. The council shall hear and consider the issue, hear any person interested therein, and shall determine whether or not any violation by the company has occurred.
 - (3) Forfeiture. If the council shall determine that the violation by the company was the fault of the company and within its control, the council may declare the contract forfeited and terminated, or the council may grant to the company a period of time for compliance.

Sec. 46-31. - Transfer, sale or conveyance by company.

The company shall not transfer, assign, sell or convey any rights granted under any resulting contract from this article without the prior approval of the council expressed by article; provided that this article shall not apply to vehicles, replacements, maintenance, upgrades or modifications of equipment, machinery, containers and buildings by company for the purpose of maintaining and continuing its operation within the city; and provided further that company may, in its sole discretion and upon written notice to the city, transfer, assign, sell or convey this article to a wholly owned subsidiary of the company or to an affiliated entity that is under common control with company (e.g., has a common parent entity).

Sec. 46-32. - Foreclosure.

Upon the foreclosure or other judicial sale of all or a substantial part of the assets and property of the company used for and dedicated to providing service pursuant to this article, the company shall notify the city of such fact, and such notification shall be treated as a notification that a change in control of the company has taken place and the provisions of this article governing the consent of the council to such change in control of the company shall apply. Upon the foreclosure or judicial sale, or the leasing of all or a substantial part of the property and assets of the company dedicated to and used for the purposes of providing service pursuant to this article, without the prior approval of the council, the council may, upon hearing and notice, terminate any contract resulting from this article.

Sec. 46-33. - Receivership and bankruptcy.

The council shall have the right to cancel any contract resulting from this article 120 days after the appointment of a receiver or trustee to take over and conduct the business of the company, whether in receivership, reorganization, bankruptcy, other action or preceding, whether voluntary or involuntary, unless such receivership or trusteeship shall have been vacated prior to the expiration of said 120 days, unless:

- (1) Trustee compliance. Within 120 days after his election or appointment, such receiver trustee shall have fully complied with all the provisions of this article and remedied all defaults thereunder; or
- (2) Trustee agreement. Such receiver or trustee, within 120 days, shall have executed an agreement, duly approved by the court having jurisdiction, whereby the receiver or trustee assumes and agrees to be bound by each and every provision of this article granted to the company.

Sec. 46-34. - Retention of city police powers.

The city retains and reserves all of its police powers and the rights, privileges, and immunities that it now has under the law to regulate, patrol and police the streets and public ways within the city, and the granting of any contract as a result of this article shall in no way interfere with the improvements to, or maintenance of, any street, alley or public way, and the rights of the city to use said streets, alleys and public ways.

Sec. 46-35. - Amendments of city articles and regulations.

The city reserves the right and power, pursuant to its police power, after due notice to the company, to modify, amend, alter, change or eliminate any rules, regulations, fees, charges and rates of the city, and to impose such additional conditions that are not inconsistent with the rights granted by this article, upon the company and all persons, firms or entities of the same class as the company, as may be reasonably necessary in the discretion council to preserve and protect the public, health, safety and welfare and/or insure adequate service to the public.

Sec. 46-36. - Taxes.

The company shall promptly pay all lawful ad valorem taxes, levies and assessments, if any, that are imposed upon the company. Absent an administrative or judicial challenge, or appeal, the failure to pay any such tax, levy or assessment is a breach of this article.

Sec. 46-37. - Public necessity.

The council hereby finds and declares that the public welfare, convenience and necessity require the service which is to be furnished by the company.

Sec. 46-38. - Severability.

If any section, paragraph, subdivision, clause, part or provision hereof is adjudged invalid or unconstitutional the same shall not affect the validity hereof as a whole or any part or provision other than the part or parts held invalid or unconstitutional.

Sec. 46-39. - Interpretation.

The use of captions or headings for the various sections of this article are for convenience of parties only and do not reflect the intent of the parties. The rule of interpretation to solve ambiguities in a contract against the party drafting such contract shall not apply to this article.

Sec. 46-40. - No suspension of laws.

All provisions of the ordinances of the city as now existing or as may be amended from time to time, and all provisions of the statutes of the state applicable to general law cities is a part of any resulting contract from this article as fully as if the same had been expressly stated herein, and said city retains and may exercise all of the governmental and police powers and all other rights and powers not directly inconsistent with the terms, conditions and provisions of this article.

Sec. 46-41. - Peaceful employment

From and after the effective date of the ordinance from which this article is derived, the city and the company is and are hereby authorized and entitled to act in reliance upon the terms, conditions and provisions of this article and any resulting contract and, subject thereto, the company shall collect rates for service, operate and conduct its business and work within the city, and enjoy the benefits and privileges of this article during the term hereof.

Sec. 46-42. - Acceptance by company.

Within 30 days after August 29, 2011, or within 30 days of establishing a business within the corporate city limits, all companies operating a residential or commercial refuse waste service shall file with the city its acceptance of the terms and provisions of this article, and request for contract. The acceptance and request for contract is in writing on the company's letterhead and provides as follows:

"City of Summerville
